

Putting the TPPA to the Test

The Fabian Society invites you to hear two speakers test the logic, the justification and indeed the value of the Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement. Is it good for New Zealand?

Jane Kelsey, Professor of Law, author and campaigner.

*Wayne Mapp, Lawyer, member New Zealand Law Commission.
Previously MP for North Shore*

Wednesday, October 9th, Owen Glen Building, (260-092) Lecture Theatre 3
University of Auckland at 6pm.

Jane Kelsey	Wayne Mapp

Can the TPPA pass the test?

What is the point of such arrangements?

What are the benefits and risks of signing on?

What happens to New Zealand sovereignty?

Is the intrusion on New Zealand's domestic affairs worth the deal?

Is this the way we want the next century to be?

Chaired by Bryan Nunweek

